

CONTRIBUTORS

Mathew CLARK (msclark@global.co.za) is Head of Department, teaching New Testament at Apostolic Faith Mission Theological College, Johannesburg, South Africa.

Paul ELBERT (pelbert@alltel.net) is Visiting Professor of Science Apologetics at Lee University and the Church of God Theological Seminary, Cleveland, TN, U.S.A.

A. C. GEORGE (DrACGeorge@cs.com), an Indian Pentecostal historian, served as President of Southern Asia Bible College, Bangalore, India.

JOSHUA is not a real name. For more information, contact the editors.

Andrew M. LORD (andylord@FreeNet.co.uk) gained an MA in Mission Studies with a focus on contextualization and Pentecostalism. He worked encouraging churches in mission with the Church Mission Society before undertaking his current further theological study in Cambridge, England.

Gary B. MCGEE (gmcgee@agseminary.edu) is Professor of Church History and Pentecostal Studies at Assemblies of God Theological Seminary, Springfield, Missouri, USA

William W. MENZIES (wwmenzies@home.com) is Editor of Asian Journal of Pentecostal Studies and Chancellor of Asia Pacific Theological Seminary, Baguio, Philippines.

Jean-Daniel PLÜSS (jdapluss@swissonline.ch) is a Swiss Pentecostal, currently President of European Pentecostal Charismatic Research Association and teaches part time at Continental Theological Seminary, Brussels, Belgium.

Bal Krishna SHARMA (bsharma@icinepal.wlink.com.np) is the National Director of ICI University, Nepal, currently enrolled in a Ph.D. program with Oxford Center for Mission Studies, Oxford, UK.

Masakazu SUZUKI (BYI07301@nifty.ne.jp) is teaching Church History at Central Bible College, Tokyo, Japan and presently serves in the Faculty of Jiyu Gakuen, Tokyo, Japan.

Gani WIYONO (gani@sttsati.org) is teaching Bible and Theology at Sekolah Tinggi Teologi Satyabhakti (Satyabhakti Advanced School of Theology), Malang, Indonesia and presently a Th.M student at Asia Pacific Theological Seminary, Baguio City, Philippines.

YEE Tham Wan (thamwan@hotmail.com) pastors an Assemblies of God church in Malaysia and currently in the Th.M. in Pentecostals Studies program at Asia Pacific Theological Seminary, Baguio, Philippines.